Jennifer Krimko is co-chair of the Land Use & Zoning Department. She devotes her practice to all areas relating to real estate, representing a wide variety of clients — from individuals to large developers — in all phases of governmental approvals before municipal, county and state agencies.

Following law school, Jennifer served as a law clerk to the Honorable Lawrence M. Lawson, prior assignment judge of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Monmouth County. She previously served on the board of directors of the Land Use Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association and was a prior member of Industrial Commercial Real Estate Women (ICREW). She has also served on the board of directors of the Affordable Housing Alliance and was the founder and prior director of two not-for-profits: Building a Better NJ Together, Inc., and Asbury Park Mounted Police Fund.

Jennifer was named to Real Estate New Jersey, Women of Influence in 2008 and PolitickerNJ Power List in 2016.
