Kristine Bergman is an associate in the Litigation, Personal Injury & Medical Malpractice, and Residential Real Estate departments. She devotes her practice to civil litigation, including personal injury, medical malpractice and property, as well as landlord–tenant and real estate issues, and chancery litigation (general equity and probate).

Kristine began her career at Ansell Grimm & Aaron as a law clerk in 1993. In 1994, she served as law clerk for the Honorable Barbara Ann Villano, J.S.C., Ocean County. Upon completing her clerkship in 1995, she returned to the firm full time.

While attending law school, Kristine served as judicial intern for the Honorable Rosemary Gambardella, U.S.B.J. She was a Dean’s Scholar and an editor in chief of the Seton Hall Law School Barrister Yearbook. At Georgian Court College, she was a member of the Delta Mu Delta Honor Society.

Kristine currently serves on the Real Estate and Land Use Committee and Special Civil Part Committee of the Monmouth Bar Association.
