ANSELL GRIMM & AARON CANNABIS PRACTICE GROUP SPEAKS AT THE CANNABIS WORLD CONGRESS & BUSINESS EXPO ON WHAT NY & NJ CAN LEARN FROM OTHERS' EXPERIENCE

Ansell Grimm & Aaron, PC Partner Joshua Bauchner Discusses What the Emerging New Jersey and New York Cannabis Markets Can Learn From States Further Along in the Legalization Process

NEW YORK, NY – As the cannabis legalization process continues across the United States, what can emerging markets like New York and New Jersey learn from others further along in the legislative and licensing process? That's the insight New Jersey's Ansell Grimm & Aaron Cannabis Law Practice Group Leader Joshua Bauchner will share in the Cannabis World Congress & Business Expo New Jersey Cannabis Workshop held Wednesday, May 30, 2018 from 9 am – 3 pm at the New York Jacob K Javits Center, Hall A.

According to Bauchner, who has been at the forefront of the legalization movement in both states, "The goal of the New Jersey Cannabis Workshop is to answer crucial questions as they pertain to timelines, application requirements, finance, and talent acquisition, and to equip professionals strongly considering New Jersey's future prospects with tangible action steps. Experienced cannabis professionals who have been through successful licensing processes in other states will also share their firsthand experiences with attendees at this unique event program."

The New York Cannabis World Congress & Business Exposition is the first of three business-to-business trade show events for the legalized cannabis event to be held this year. Other Expos will be held in Los Angeles and Boston.
