Layne Feldman is an associate in the Litigation Department. She devotes her practice to a range of complex commercial and civil litigation matters, including commercial lease disputes, Consumer Fraud Act claims, corporate/shareholder disputes and secured property actions. She also has experience in the litigation of matters involving products liability and property damage claims, as well as experience representing condominium associations and cooperatives.

Ms. Feldman also represents employees and employers in all aspects of employment law. She routinely prepares and reviews severance agreements, employee handbooks, and policies. She also defends her clients against claims and charges brought by current and former employees alleging discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wage and hour violations, breach of contract, violation of restrictive covenant obligations, and misappropriation of confidential information claims.

She received her J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law, where she was a member of the Seton Hall Circuit Review and a semi-finalist in the Eugene Gressman Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Competition. After law school Layne clerked for the Honorable Lawrence M. Maron in Passaic County.

Ms. Feldman has been recognized as a Super Lawyers “Rising Star”* from 2018–2024.
