Gabriel R. Blum is an associate in the Litigation Department. His practice encompasses a range of complex civil litigation matters.

Gabriel worked as an attorney with prominent regional and national law firms before joining Ansell Grimm & Aaron. An experienced litigator licensed in New Jersey and New York, he has handled tort and civil litigation cases in New Jersey Superior Court and New York Supreme Court. Whether preparing an initial case evaluation or negotiating a settlement conference, Gabriel focuses on achieving the best outcomes for his clients.

Gabriel earned his law degree at Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. While there, he was an articles editor for the Cardozo Journal of Law & Gender and the judicial law clerk for the Honorable David B. Cohen, New York Civil Court. Gabriel graduated from Yeshiva University with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science.
